BUT THEY DO HAVE A LEG TO STAND ON (Three each, to be exact . . . The little dogs pictured, "Blondie" on the ground and "Linkett" in the basket, have something in common. Each one has lost a leg. "Linkett" belongs to Mrs. Florence Weed, 51 W. Mission Way, holding bike. The little dog was injured in a traffic accident last Fall and her leg subsequently had to be amputated. "Blondie" is ready to take candy being offered by her mistress, Mrs. Bill Jensen, wife of the owner of Campbell-Cambrian Cyclery, 120 E. Campbell Ave. "Blondie's" leg was broken shortly after birth, never healed, and had to be amputated. Both dogs have adjusted themselves quite well to their leg shortage. —Campbell Press photo.

City Condemns Two Buildings

For the first time in the city's history, the City Council on Monday night condemned two buildings as public nuisances.

One of the buildings is the barn occupied as a residence by Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Van Dyke at 362 Dot Ave. It was declared a public nuisance in violation of sewer regulations. Both the Health Department and the Building Inspector had recommended action be taken. There are no sewers on the premises, no cesspools and no means of disposal of sewage. Councilmen were shown pictures taken of the premises.

The other building declared a public nuisance is owned by Carl B. Field, 369 E. Campbell Ave. This building was formerly occupied by the Campbell Hardware. The Council gave Field four months to repair, remove, or demolish the building.

The Cancer Society is preparing for its Campbell residential fund drive on April 16 and volunteers are urgently needed.

Votes Okay Water District Bond Issue

Voters in the Santa Clara Water Conservation District gave the $3 million bond issue the necessary two-thirds majority on Tuesday. But it was close. The issue squeezed by with a 68.1 per cent favorable vote.

The vote was 15,099 "yes" to 7,069 "no" with only about 16 per cent of the eligible voters in the district bothering to go to the polls.

For the election the county precincts were consolidated into 127 polliing places. Campbell precincts gave the bond issue a big boost as did Sunnyvale, Santa Clara, Cambrian Park, Cupertino and Mountain View among others. In the San Jose precincts the voters were less agreeable but still gave the issue the necessary majority.

Almost every precinct in the district (Los Gatos is excluded) gave a favorable vote to the issue. However, one Palo Alto precinct, one in Milpitas and one at the Almaden-Union School gained the distinction of turning down the bonds.

The best vote percentagewise in favor of the bonds occurred at Agnews State Hospital where the vote was 70 to 6 in favor.

In Campbell at the Odd Fellows Hall there were 66 "yes" votes to 27 "no"; at the high school district office, 143 "yes", 45 "no"; at Campbell Grammar, 83 "yes", 33 "no".

At Camden High School the vote was 95 "yes", 41, "no"; at Cambrian School, 107, "yes", 43, "no"; at Steindorf, 138, "yes"; 45, "no".

At the Quito School, 53, "yes", 37, "no"; at Moorpark School, 113, "yes", 38, "no". At Moreland School, 103; "yes"; 49, "no.".

At 695 Downing Ave., 28, "yes", 43, "no"; at 1876 Cabana Drive, 128, "yes"; 42, "no".

Council Postpones Hearings

Because two councilmen were unavoidably absent for the regular meeting on Monday night, three public hearings scheduled were deferred until April 8.

City Attorney Joseph Bonacina recommended that the hearings be postponed because the city ordinance calls for a four-fifth vote on matters stemming from the action of the Planning Commission.

All three of th public hearings fell into that category. One concerned a change of zone application, another on the denial of a use permit (trailer court) and the other on the granting of a use permit. (G and P Equipment Rental Co.) All three cases were represented by attorneys at the meeting.

It was announced that the sales tax check from the state had been received for $15,789.79. With previous checks sales tax income now totals $19,311.37. This amount is for the final quarter of the year (the tax took affect October 1) and is running ahead of estimates, it was reported.

City Clerk Dorothy Trevethan also reported receipt of the PG and E franchise payment for electricity of $2,775.34 and the gas franchise for $1764.72. The electricity gained $491 over last year and the gas $275.33.

Fire Chief Jack Scott made his annual report which showed that per capita loss from fires last year was only .54 cents based on a total fire loss of $5,400. He reported that there were 141 calls last year and noted that there were 532 daily burning permits issued and 20 seasonal ones.

Deputy Mayor Charles Rose presided at the meeting because of the absence of Mayor John M. Chargin (Chargin arrived toward the close of the meeting). Councilman Richard Morton was also absent.

Other actions included:

(1) The Council set public hearings on annexations for May 6. The two annexations lie south of the present city limits in the new industrial section.

(2) The request for a banner to be displayed across Winchester Road at Campbell during Public School Week (April 28 to May 4) was referred to the city attorney.

(3) The week of April 1-8 was proclaimed Future Homemakers' Week at the request of the high school district.

Planners Hold Up Local Bank -- Plans

Campbell City Planners last Thursday deferred approval of the plans for American Trust Company's new bank building (Campbell and 2nd Ave.) until their April 4 meeting.

Action should be taken on the plans the same time as on the request for a parking variance, the commissioners decided. The public hearing on the parking variance has been set for April 4, the next meeting of the Commission.

At Thursday's meeting, the Commission approved the request of Cosmo D. Perrotta for a zone change on property located on the northeast corner of Garrison Drive and Winchester Road.

The Planners also set April 18 as the public hearing date for a zone change request of Charles Rose for property located at Latimer Ave. and Winchester Road.

It Will Take a Bond Issue to Raise Level of Municipal Services

Necessary capital improvements requiring a total capital outlay of $1,653,000 would raise the level of municipal services in the City of Campbell to the proper plane. These improvements have been described in preceding articles.

In addition, the previous reports have pointed out that these new improvements, together with the expansion of the present basic municipal services, would require an additional annual operating cost of $108,500.

Can this program be financed by the people of Campbell?

Is it possible to provide even a part of these improvements for their enjoyment and use?

Most of these improvements and their subsequent operating costs can be obtained at an approximate cost of only $33 per year to the average home-owner in Campbell.

Are you Mr. and Mrs. Citizen willing to pay this amount?

The Campbell Press in collaboration with Councilman Richard Morton has presented this series as a public service. This final article summarizes the situation and explains the financial methods that can be used.

A "straw ballot" is also published in this issue.

By filling out the ballot as directed and returning it to The Campbell Press, residents will be able to give their City Council some idea of what the people desire in the way of improvements. The Council can then act accordingly.—G.V.

Total $1,653,000

The necessary capital improvements requiring a total capital outlay of $1,653,000 include major street improvements of $640,000, a complete storm sewer trunk system, $575,000, a new corporation yard, 40,000, new firehouses, $93,000, the establishment of parks, $55,000 and the setting up of a revolving fund of $250,000.

These new improvements, together with the expansion of our present basic municipal services to the extent discussed in the various articles, would also require providing for an additional annual operating cost in the total amount of $108,100.

This additional annual operating cost would be made up of $3,500 for storm sewers, $4,000 for corporation yard, $41,000 for the Fire Department, $6,000 for the parks, $32,000 for the Police Department, $11,000 for street sweeping and $11,000 for street maintenance and repair.

Additional annual operating cost can be financed only out of the annual revenue received by the City. These cannot be made the subject of any other form of financing arrangements.

But how can capital improvements be financed?

There are three methods of financing capital improvements, all have been considered by the City Council.

Lease-Purchase

One method is commonly known as lease-purchase financing. Experience in other cities has indicated that this is not the best method so far as the municipality is concerned. The financier who constructs the capital improvement and then rents it to the city for a price equal to the amortization cost plus his profit, usually extracts a profit far in excess of normal municipal interest rates. As a consequence, most cities have now rejected this as an inequitable type of financing.

Property Tax Hike

A second method would be to increase the general property tax to its maximum limits and accumulate the excess proceeds thereof for a number of years until the total amount needed was in the Treasury. The three disadvantages are, first, that having the capital improvements themselves is postponed until the money had been accumulated as a whole. Second, the postponement of the acquisition of the capital improvements would mean that when they were ultimately obtained the cost would be higher, and third, it would cast a burden upon present taxpayers to construct facilities for the use by citizens of the City in the future.

Obligation Bonds

The third method, and that which is recommended, is the general obligation bond. The theory behind this type of financing is to have the municipal facilities and improvements now, and spread the cost thereof over the useful life of the facility so that all the taxpayers who will enjoy the use of the facility and improvement will each pay their own fair share.

All of the capital improvements discussed cannot be obtained through this form of financing.

The law provides that a city may not incur a bonded indebtedness in excess of 15 per cent of its assessed valuation. Assuming that the assessed valuation of the City of Campbell is $10,000,000, the total bonded indebtedness that could be incurred is $1,500,000. If 30-year bonds, at a rate of 3 1/4% in the total amount of $1,500,000 were voted by the City of Campbell, it would mean that the sum of $81,600 would be required each year to pay off those bonds. This is equivalent to, roughly, an 81-cent tax rate or approximately double the present municipal tax of the City of Campbell. The tax rate necessary to redeem bonds in that amount would, of course, decrease as the assessed valuation of the City increased.

If The People . . .

If the people of Campbell are willing to assume a bonded indebtedness of $1,426,000.00, they could build the storm sewer trunk system, improve all of the streets mentioned, to the extent of widening the same only and installing the necessary electric traffic signals, they could build the two new firehouses and they could establish the two new parks. They could also set up the revolving fund so that our City could continue to progress and expand.

What can be done with respect to meeting the necessary increases in annual operating cost out of annual and current revenues?

The general property tax can be increased to its legal limit of $1.00. This would produce an additional $25,000 annually. That amount would also increase as the assessed valuation of the City increases. It would also now appear that the municipal sales tax will produce approximately $50,000 a year, which has not been previously committed.

With the $75,000, the storm sewers can be serviced, the new firehouses can be equipped and manned, the parks can be operated, the level of our street maintenance and repair can be doubled and our Police Department can be expanded to almost its highest level. These increased services would cost $74,500.00 per year.

This then is the overall picture confronting the people of Campbell.

It is the voting taxpayer who must exercise his choice. He must first decide whether or not he wants to do anything about improving the City. Secondly, he must decide which of all of the improvements is the most important.

The Campbell City Council would like to have these questions answered for them by every taxpayer. This is obviously impossible. But, it is felt that a representative decision can be reached, if the readers of The Campbell Press will avail themselves of the straw ballot which concludes this series.

American Trust Co. Makes Awards to Future Farmers

Eleven students from Camden and Campbell High Schools were among the 51 boys from 10 high schools in this area who received awards from the American Trust Company in the 1957 farm program competition of the Future Farmers of America.

The awards were made at a banquet in San Jose last Thursday at which Joaquin J. Payne, manager of the Campbell branch of the bank, was master of ceremonies. The host for the evening was Fred J. Oehler, vice-president and manager of the bank's main office in San Jose.

Among the 132 banquet guests were superintendents, principals, and agriculture instructors from all the participating schools; press, radio and TV representatives and bank officers.

Sponsored by American Trust for the fifth consecutive year, almost 4000 Future Farmers and 70 high schools are involved in the competition in northern and central California. Winners in the individual school competitions were chosen in February while the sectional competition took place last week.

The Danish system of judging was used in the final competition with Future Farmers graded into an upper half or a lower half, depending upon the quality of their farm products. Upper half winners receive gold awards and lower half winners receive silver. All received an additional gift of a stockman's knife from the bank.

Mike Rizzo, received the only gold award in the Campbell High contingent with Arthur Erwin, Steve Hallberg, Marvin Leshley, Tom Uchytil and Ken White getting silver awards.

Larry Alvarado, Bill Murphy and Dayle Waddington from Camden High received gold awards with George Gray and Larry Lindsay getting silver.

Principal speaker at the banquet was Charles Filice of Hollister, state president of the Future Farmers of America this year.

Credit Man Talks To Rotary Club

"Credit is like whiskey, a little nip is good for you, too much will make you groggy and might even knock you out", Roy Howard of the Santa Clara Valley Credit Bureau told the Rotary Club Monday.

Howard said the first Credit Bureau was actually a blacklist but has since developed into a central bank of information on a person's character, capital and capacity for payment. He said the Bureau has records on 400,000 people in San Jose and once a year publish a "Blue Book" of credit ratings.

Guests of the club were "first chair" students of Campbell High School Band, Bob Moran, Gail Williamson, Jack Guio, Dave Gupton, Don Peterson, Richard Kettlewell, Jim Keech, Larry Tyrell, and George Ballantyne.

On the program next week will be the Campbell High School Band directed by William Perkins, head of the Music Department.

Neal Royer was chairman of the day.

FATHER OF TEN CLAIMED BY DEATH

Services were conducted in San Jose Saturday for Charles Burrows, 61, who passed away March 21 after a short illness. Interment was in Golden Gate National Cemetery.

Burrows was a plumber and resided at 330 Camden Avenue.

He is survived by his widow, Esther; and ten children, Esther Lannini, Johnnie Brackett, Lillie Buryman, Milton, Clifford, Delbert, Billy, Jackie, Mary and Frankie Burrows.

In James Lick Meet

Mike Profit Becomes First Prep in North to Exceed Sixty Feet in Shot

By Richard Ferguson

Although Mike Profit became the first northern California prep shot put star this season to exceed 60 feet, he failed to boost his team to victory as the James Lick Comets downed the Bucs, 67-55, at Campbell. The loss was the Buccaneers' first of the season. They have one win to their credit.

Profit tossed the shot 60 feet, 3-3/4 inches and became the 11th best shop putter in the California all-time prep list. He exceeded his nearest competitor's mark by 13 feet. He hurled the discus 124 feet, 3½ inches without a spin to take top honors in that event.

Lacking the hurdling of Bob Bridge, who has a chipped shoulder bone, the Bucs were at a disadvantage from the beginning. Jerry Shenefiel was also absent. Jerry last week broad jumped 19 feet, which was two inches over the winning jump of Kumagai from Lick.

Doug Reed started things off right for the Comets in the high and low hurdles, winning both events with teammate Bill Turner close on his heels. Turner also captured the hop-step-jump event at 39 feet, 6 inches.

Monty Nielsen was the only other Campbellite besides Profit to capture two events, winning the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard dash. Gregg Hoffman walked off with 880 honors as well as being part of the winning relay team of Monty Neilsen, Dave Alvarez, Martinez and Hoffman.

Others placing for Campbell and helping a great deal in the team effort were Bob Jiminez, third in broad jump; Tuttle and Wall, tie for second in pole vault; States, second in the mile run; Dave Alvarez, second in 100-yard dash and third in 140 low hurdles; Martinez, second in 440; Prnjak, second in shot put and third in discus; Douglas, third high jump; and Hill, second in hop-step-jump and third in high hurdles.

Buc Swimmers Beat SJS Frosh, Lick

Campbell High swimmers floated to victories in the two meets held last week. On Tuesday the San Jose State Frosh were dumped 59 to 18 while on Thursday James Lick was barely nosed out 39-38. The Campbell Bees, however, swamped Lick 56 to 12.

BUC GOLFERS WIN

Campbell High trounced Lincoln High at the Almaden golf course last Friday 6-0 to remain undefeated in this year's competition so far.

Ron Rowe defeated his opponent with a 45 and 1 hole up: Dennis Cummins shot a 42 four up nine hole round to defeat his rival: Harvey Alford shot the day's low of 40 in downing his man with 7 up; Charles Harrison stopped his opponent with a 44 and 5 up: Grant Burton polished off his opposition with a 46 and 4 up with Jim Peffley posting a 56 and 2 up over his opponent.

Buc Tennis Men Win Two Matches

Lincoln High School and Santa Cruz High School felt the blow of the SCVAL champion Buc racketteers as the Bucs swept Lincoln off the map 6-0 last Friday at Lincoln and then took the measure of the Santa Cruz Cardinals on their home courts 4-1 on Monday.

Lincoln was completely surprised by the Bucs as they swept the field in every singles match and also the double matches.

Gene Andres led off for the Bucs and downed his opponent Johnson 6-3, 9-7 with Art Hill following the lead with his triumph over Gainer 6-0, 6-3. Terry Garrison stopped Anderson 6-0, 6-1, Johnson defeated Civiglio 6-2, 6-1.

In the doubles division Campbell sent Lance Mortenson and Don Brown against Lewis and Holmes with the Campbell netters coming out on top 6-4. 6-3. Balctelor and Weber also downed their opponents in a doubles contest, 6-3, 6-0.

Santa Cruz Tougher

Campbell had a harder time with the Santa Cruz team losing one match and having one end in a draw because of darkness. Art Hill triumphed over Terry O'Neil 6-2, 6-0; Terry Garrison stopped Frank Reinert 6-3 and 7-5;

North Carolina Wins

The North Carolina Basketball team won the NCAA Title by taking Kansas 54 to 53. They went into three overtimes to win. It was the first time a naional championship game went into overtime. Kansas went into the finals by beating U.S.F. 80-56 Friday night. It was the Dons first defeat in 12 NCAA tournament games. U.S.F. took third place by taking Michigan State 67-60.

The Boston Red Sox beat the S. F. Seals mostly in the sixth inning with five runs. Final score 9-3, After the Seals took them 5-2 the night before. The third game was a tight one the Soxs taking it 5-4 in ten innings. All in all the Seals put up a good showing and we look for a good season for them.

Mickey Mantle suffered a sprained ligament in his left foot that will keep him from practice for at least a week.

San Jose Hard Tops

The San Jose Speedway opened its 11th season Sunday with Car 55 winning the Main which was driven by Larry Ferrua. Danny Graves was back and showed a good performance by coming in second in the Main Event. Clyde Palmer of Monte Vista broke two track records. One of 1:52.47 in the six lap heat race held since 1953 with a 1:54.55. The other—2:31.24 in eight laps besting Dave Reeds mark of 2:31.45 set in 1952.

Larry Rodriquez, our local Campbell driver, arrived too late to qualify for the Main. Larry took 1st in the "C" Race which he went in to test his car. The way it looked you are going to hear great things from Car No. 22 and our local driver. Be sure and watch for him.

James Lick Licks Buc Baseballers

James Lick thumped the Campbell Buccaneer baseballers 9-3 on their home diamond last Friday to open SCVAL league play. Campbell, the defending champion has found the going pretty rough so far this season.

Dave LaBarbera was the only Campbell man to reach first base in the first inning on a walk but was left stranded when Gene Bowen popped out to left field for the final out. James Lick took advantage of Campbells' slow start and blasted out three hits with two runs coming across the plate in the bottom of the first on three singles and a walk.

Hector Cordova slugged a double in the second inning but Lee McNabb, John Kriewall, and Jim Corbus went down 1-2-3 to leave Cordova stranded at second. Lick repeated their three hit two run first inning with Rudd dropping in a single and Palacios a triple followed by DiGiovanni with a double.

Three men bit the dust for the Comets in the third with Dave LaBarbera and Don Kitajima getting to first on walks in their half of the inning. Neither team hit safely in the fourth inning as both defensive units tightened up to stop a late rally.

Lick caught fire in the fifth round to uncork four hits and also garner four runs to boost the score to 8-0. Striving for a shut out the Comets tighened up in the top of the sixth but the Bucs saved themselves from a completely unsuccessful day when they brought across three runs.

on at our shop. The PICKETING is an effort to compel us to join the union. NONE of our employees desires the "protection" or "benefits"? of the union and none are willing to join. They prefer a "Closed Non-union shop", it being a religious conviction with each one.

The picket is a "bargaining right" of the union, but it should be used to affect those businesses with labor strife; or large, unscrupulous concerns. Our small shop, with three employees now, CANNOT be a threat to organized labor.

We feel it is our privilege in America to operate a legitimate business without corecion when we do not trample the rights of others. We feel OUR RIGHTS are being TRAMPLED by this picket.

Even if you favor the "Closed Union Shop," you should oppose the FEAR MOTIVE which would force you to leave your home community to trade, as no Dry Cleaner in Campbell operates a union shop.

Will you protest this "unfair" picketing by bringing us your

Job's Daughters To Model Styles

Last minute preparations are being made for Job's Daughters' "Artistry in Spring Fashions" style show to be held Friday, April 5, at Rosemary School from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Tickets will be on sale at the door and the public is invited to attend.

The girls have lined up a colorful array of spring clothing suitable for every occasion, from casual sport wear to formals. Featured will be sport, playclothes, afternoon and cocktail dresses from Lia's; formals from the Willow Glen Shop; wedding dresses from Coeta's; and shoes from C. H. Baker's.

Janet Catalone, past honored guardian, will comment on fashions modeled by Suzanne Burrows, Joan Fife, Judy Grevstad, Dona Williams, Mary Andrews, Linda Nichols, Susan Davis, Diane Nelson, Ruth Williamson, Wanda McCracken, Joy Whitehead, Kathy Emery, Diane Stambaugh, Judy Nelson, Lynn Nelson and Gay Williamson.

Adult Center Set For Open House

The Girls' Gymnasium of Campbell High School will be the locale for the annual Adult Center Open House to be held tonight at 7:30 p.m. Visitors will be greeted by Spanish classes of Eugenio Gamez and Ralph de la Rosa, reception chairmen. District Superintendent Laurance J. Hill will give an address of welcome to the Citizenship and Beginning English classes who are to be guests of honor for the evening.

Arrangements by Adult Education Director Edward P. Stanley include a fashion show at 8 p.m. modeled by representatives of the homemaking classes, followed by demonstrations from art groups. Exhibitions will include water, color, oils, charcoal, sculpture, homecrafts and flower arrangements by beginning and advanced classes and will be available for inspection on walls and on tables around the gym. This art show will be a preview of showings to be made at other locations and will contain hundreds of specimens of fine art.

The rugmaking exhibit, according to Mrs. Bessie Young, will be extensive, showing many varieties and designs.

Camp Fire Groups to Hold Open House Friday

Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls of Quito, Strawberry Park and Moreland Schools will hold an "Open House" Friday, March 29, at 7:30 p.m. in Moreland cafetorium to cemmemorate the forty-seventh birthday of the Camp Camp Fire organization.

On exhibition for the public will be art and craft work made by the girls during the past year. There will be a film shown and all groups from the three schools will take part in the program which will follow.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR TO APPEAR HERE

The a cappella choir of College of the Pacific will appear in concert on Thursday, April 4th at the First Methodist Church at 8 p.m. under the sponsorship of the church's Music Committee. The noted choral group is now on its 22nd annual tour and is under the direction of J. Russell Bodley.

The purpose of the forty-voice group, which includes not only music majors but young men and women active in education, religion and athletics as well as other fields, is to bring a message of goodwill from their campus at Stockton.

Tickets are available at the First Methodist Church, according to Rev. Herbert Neale.

There are more than 60 lines in San Francisco's municipal railway system.

Parent Groups to End Discussions

"Meeting the Needs of Adolescents", will be the subject of parent discussion groups of the Campbell High School District when they hold their final meeting Wednesday, April 3, in Camden High School cafetorium at 7:30 p.m.

The past few months the parent groups have been working on better understanding of teen-age problems in co-operation with the Adult Education Deparment and the PTAs of both high schools. At this final meeting each group will make a report on its conclusions and give a brief resume of problems discussed.

Both parents and school officials have felt the exchange of ideas and recommendations has been beneficial to themselves and the teen-ager and should help bring about a better relationship in home, school and community.

EDITORIAL

Now, It's Your Turn

For five consecutive issues, the Campbell Press in collaboration with Councilman Morton has presented a report to the people of the City of Campbell.

The series of articles described the necessary capital improvements, i.e., major street improvements, storm sewers, corporation yard, new fire houses ,parks, and a revolving fund.

The articles also explained how the basic municipal services of the City needed to be expanded.

In this week's report, the final in the series, the methods of financing and expansions are explained and the approximate cost to the average home-owner is given (approximately $33 yer year).

But there is still another important feature to the final article which appears on the front page in this issue.

A straw ballot is included and that is where you get into the act.

It is now your turn.

Give sober, deliberate consideration to the problems that exist in our City, and the possibilities for solving these problems, then mark your ballot and send it to The Campbell Press.

This turns this presentation into a sort of town meeting, a forum, a panel or what have you. And that's what we want.

But unless a large number of you take the time to fill out and send in the ballot, the effectiveness of the idea will be lost and the project will fall flat on its face, another victim of that old villian, apathy.

We think it is important for the City Council to know what the people want in the way of improvements and this will give the City dads an opportunity of learnig just that.

But local residents must cooperate in this.

The Charges Were Unfounded

Recently the County planning Commission granted a zoning change which would enable the West Valley Post No. 158 American Legion operate a clubhouse on E. Parr Ave. on the outskirts of Campbell.

The clubhouse is to be situated in an area that is in the throes of being annexed to Campbell as an industrial park.

In granting the Legion permission to operate the clubhouse, the County Planning Commission deviated from its previous policy of "hands off" on land that is being considered for annexation or is in the process of being annexed by a city.

We have no quarrel with the American Legion. As a matter of fact, as a World War II veteran, we realize that the Legion as been instrumental in obtaining many advantages for the veteran. We also have been a member of a Legion post during most of the years since World War II.

In our opinion there is nothing wrong in locating a Legion clubhouse in an industrial park, provided it does not prevent an industry from locating in the vicinity and provided it meets all the building requirements.

But we don't like the unfounded charges that have been floating around concerning the situation.

According to the report, at the County Planning Commission meeting, Campbell City officals were charged with deliberately trying to ban the clubhouse by annexing the E. Parr Ave. site where it will be located.

The counsel for the Legion is reported to have stated that Campbell started proceedings only to keep the Legion from using the property.

We are afraid that the Legion in this case has acquired an exaggerated opinion of its importance and has let wishful thinking take the place of realism.

We are even more surprised that the County Planning Commission agreed with the Legion's point of view, apparently without doing a great deal of checking on the matter.

One look at the area will show that the annexation involving the parcel of land on which the clubhouse is located is just one in a series of a half-dozen or more annexations. The ultimate goal of this group of annexations is to have a sizeable industrial park extending along the railroad track and to the creek.

We are certain that no one involved in the annexation proceedings gave the Legion a thought one way or another until after the Post had become involved with moving a building onto the property.

And at no time did the city officials have any authority in the matter.

Frankly, we still can't see anything wrong with a clubhouse in that locality.

But we hardly think it was necessary to resort to unfounded charges and half-truths to obtain permission to locate and operate.

Over the Years

By John D. Blaine

Since Campbell is getting into the mood for another Old Settlers' Day celebration it seems fitting to describe in the "Over the Years" column what one of the first celebrations of this kind was like.

Emphatically the first celebrations were on Feb. 22, Washington's Birthday, one of the few general holidays of that period. Except for school children and teachers regular Saturday holidays were unheard of. As for having a community celebration on Sunday, the old-fashioned religious spirit of our founding fathers and mothers made that impossible.

One of the most striking changes in the times is this attitude toward Sunday recreation. I have personally felt both ways! Hence I sympathize with both points of view.

The setting for a typical OSD first celebration was the improvised auditorium of the J. C. Ainsley Canning Company. Mr. Ainsley was a kind of patron saint. For community betterments his was the largest donation, and whatever else he could do for Campbell he did. In this case he loaned us part of his large building.

Speech Comes First

First came a speech by some celebrated great man. Perhaps our very greatest speaker was Dr. David Starr Jordan, first president of Stanford Universiy. He was a big, imposing man, rough-hewed of human granite. He was said to have worked his way through higher education by digging ditches. As a speaker he was serious to the point of rudeness. Applause interested him not at all.

He was both an educator and a biologist and a writer of various scientific books. No other university president of his day attracted in California so much attention. He was a biological authority on fishes, and as a speaker he was personally our big catch.

After his speech came a basket lunch, spread on long tables, part of the equipment of the cannery. This feature was in a sense a community picnic. Families were seated side by side, and food was exchanged as good feeling suggested. Bread, pies, and cakes were homemade. The present dominance of professional baking was undreamed-of. So were canned baked beans! What was the most dramatic dish? You would never guess. Precisely New England "Boston baked beans," baked by Campbell folk who came from New England itself.

And you would never guess the most dramatic comparison for the flavor, this: "These beans taste like strawberries!"

Stanford Singers

The most outstanding afternoon program that I recall brought singing by the Stanford Glee Club. These students were no ordinary ones. Stanford was first built for poor boys especially deserving of higher education because of high character. Tuition was free. Herbert Hoover was one of the first to enter and first to graduate. He was representative of the expectation. In view of the inspiration associated with Stanford the singing of the glee club seemed to us not of this world.

Also on that afternoon program was a recitation by Lee Emerson Basset, one of Stanford's first professors of English. He chose to give us Joaquin Miller's verses on Columbus. Here is a sample:

Behind him lay the gray Azores,
  Behind the Gates of Hercules;
Before him not the ghost of shores,
  Before him only shoreless seas.

He gained a world; he gave that world
Its grandest lesson: "On! sail on!"

Some critics of literature think Joaquin Miller was a better showman than poet, but Campbell of that day was not qualified to judge except on the basis of aspirations. And Campbell's aspirations were in harmony with the mood of Professor Basset's recitation.

Campbell wanted to sail on, and on.

Rather slowly, it may be, it has done so. And now we are confronted with problems of taxes and bonds. "To be or not to be: that is the question."

Aspirationally speaking the answer ought to be: "On! sail on!"

ITALY TRAVELOGUE

A tour through Italy by way a color and sound travelogue called "Glimpses of Italy" is offered to the public free of charge on April 5 at 8 p.m. by the Los Gatos Art Association at its Art Center, Austin Way next to Quito Fire Station.

OUT on the LIMB

George Vierhus

We know the people of Campbell will be happy to learn that their mayor, John M. Chargin, is a very versatile individual.

Jack did the commentary for the recent fashion show sponsored by the Santa Clara Junior Women's Club. Although this was Mayor Chargin's first venture into this particular field we understand he acquitted himself commendably.

The mayor told us that he has since received several offers to do other shows. He hadn't taken any of them, the last we heard. He mentioned that he even modeled a suit from one of the leading men's store at the affair. We have no comment to make on this.

—o—

Cliff Cassiday this week called our attention to an item on the blessing of cars that appeared in the bulletin of St. Francis Cabrini Church on Sunday. (We print the bulletin in our establishment.)

In the bulletin Father Robert Essig announced that those automobiles that had not been blessed prevviously would be taken care of Sunday.

But there was a qualification listed:

"This blessing is no good for over 55 mph.", the notice warned.

Cliff thought this made good sense.

After all, he pointed out, in the face of the terrific traffic dangers that exist on the highways today, it would be only fair to the Lord to put some limitaeion on it.

By the way, we are calling Cliff "old eagle eye" around the plant this week. He did a good turn for us last week, thanks to his sharp eyes.

In our news story about the appointment of Mrs. Ellis Litynsky as postmaster, a line of type dropped from the paragraph which reported that Ellis had been named after her father. The trouble was that the omission of this line changed everything.

"The new acting postmaster, who was born in San Diego, was killed in World War I." . . . That's the way it read without the line.

It should have read: "The new acting postmaster, who was born in San Diego, was named after her father, who was killed in World War I."

Fortunately Cliff spotted the mistake after only 500 papers had been printed and just before he was ready to leave. We had already gone home and hadn't caught it.

The press was stopped and the correction made. The 500 papers, however, with the error were sent through the mails, and we had a hunch we would hear about it. We did.

A postcard from Kingsburg arrived on Monday, a clipping of the offending paragraph was pasted to it. Above the clipping someone had written "Whoops!! ! Below was written: "MUST be a Republican! ! !"

—o—

The surprise appointment of Mrs. Litynsky as postmaster caused considerable comment among the citizens of the town. However, the appointment really would not have made the ripple it did, if the people had only stopped to consider the fact that it has been traditional through the years that the postmastership is a political plum.

After meeting Mrs. Litynsky we are convinced that she will make an excellent postmaster. She has both the intelligence and the background that will prove of valuable assistance to her in carrying out her duties.

The only criticism we have to make about the appoinment has to do with the "system". It has nothing to do with the individual concerned.

The recommendation to Rep. Charlie Gubser was made by the "local advisory committee" who supposedly "screened" a number of applicants for the job.

The first we knew of the recommendation was Gibser's wire to us that Mrs. Litynsky was being appointed acting postmaster. Our point is the the "local advisory committete" should have made their recommendation known to the public. If the members of the committee sincerely felt that Ellis was qualified and was the right person for the position, why not have the courage of their convictions and mention it. After oll, we think the public has a right to know inas much as they are paying for it.

We sympathize with John Dee Cooper, owner of the Golden State Cleaners because we think a grave injustice is being done him. John's plant, located at Campbell Ave. and Railway Ave. has been picketed by the union for more than a week.

We think the union in this case is being grossly unfair. The questions of working conditions or wages are not involved in this case. The union simply wants all the employees to join the union and the employees don't want to. John claims that should he sign a union contract his employees have told him they will quit. So there John sits betwixt and between. He can't win for losing.

In the meantime his business is falling off. We know of no one who gets any pleasure out of walking through a picket line, and for that reason customers have hesitated about taking their cleaning into the Gloden State Cleaners.

We think it is a doggone shame that the union is forcing the issue in this case. The union may win, too. That's the sad part of it.

We think the big boys who run the laundry and cleaners labor organization are making a big mistake. They may win this time but they will leave a pretty sour tatse in many people's mouths. Ours included.

We don't see where the union can justify its case this time i.e. establishing a picket line just because they want more members.

It would be like us throwing up a picket line in order to force someone to subscribe to our paper. (Hey, maybe they have something there.)

—o—

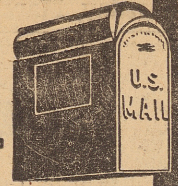
You know we have protested the bill now before the legislature sponsored by the California Teachers Association that would tax beer and cigarets in order to raise dough for the schools.

We think it shows discrimination of the worst orded. (How about a tax on red heads, fat people and bald-headed men? It would be just as fair.)

Because of this proposed tax on beer, we understand that lately the old bar expression of "let's have one for the road" is being supplanted by "let's have one for the kiddies and their teachers."

California manufactured 33,540 pounds of butter in 1955.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR...



Cancer Crusade

March 22, 1957
Editor, The Campbell Press
Sir:

Cancer Conrol Month begins in Santa Clara County as through the rest of the Nation April 1.

A word from you to your readers could mean the difference between success and failure of the Cancer Crusade here.

The Santa Clara County Branch and its 13 Community Units of the American Cancer Society will try to raise $66.565 of California's goal of $2.7 million and the national goal of $30 million.

The local Cancer Crusaders, all volunteers, will make their first house-to-house canvass in the history of local cancer campaigns April 16. The traditional letters (in new bank-statement-style) will go out afterwards in an effort to contact residents missed in the personal canvass.

You could help us immeasurably by calling attention to the April Cancer Crusade and the need for volunteers on or before April 1 and urging support of the fund-raising efforts on or before the date of the house-to-house drive, April 16.

The statistical picture in Santa Clara County is roughly the same as in the Nation. There were 364 cancer deaths—an average of one a day—in 1955 in Santa Clara County. (1955 is the last year for which complete figures are available in the County Health Department).

If national percentages apply here, 90 of these could have been avoided if the victims had seen a doctor soon enough for him to operate or treat their cancers with radiation. The rest would have died anyway, again if national percentages hold here, because scientists do not yet know enough about some kinds of cancer.

These are the basic reasons behind the Cancer Crusade slogan: "Fight Cancer with a Checkup and a Check!" A Checkup to take advantage of current knowledge, a check to improve the knowledge of cancer.

They are also the basic reasons behind our appeal to you for your editorial support.

Thank you,
Elise Belenky, President
Doug Guy, County Campaign Chairman.

"How old am I?"
asks Mrs. Edna Short, 924 Jackson, Albany, California

Ever noticed? The grand thing about grandmothers these days is not their age—but how youthful they look!

One good reason is modern household appliances. They've taken over the tough, back-breaking chores that used to rob women of their youth and beauty long before their time.

Mrs. Short, pictured with grandson Kim, is a wonderful example. This 45-year-old grandmother leaves most of her hard work to labor-saving appliances. How about you?

Here's the beauty of it: With P. G. and E.'s low rates for gas and electricity you can run a houseful of appliances all day—for about half the price of a bottle of liquid make-up.

PLANNING ON PLANTING?

GARDENER'S CHECK LIST

By The California Association of Nurserymen

REMINDERS

1. Gladiolus can be planted at two week intervals to provide a succession of bloom.
2. Start spraying roses at regular intervals to keep them free of aphids and mildew.
3. Apples and Pears should be sprayed at the time the petals fall, to keep the worms out of the fruits. DDT or Arsenate of Lead is recommended.
4. Disbud roses if you want large, perfect show blooms. Leave only the terminal bud on each shoot.
5. Spring flowering trees and shrubs should be pruned as soon as they have finished flowering.

Magnolias

A large and magnificent family, the Magnolia includes deciduous and evergreen varieties in a number of different shapes, sizes and blossom colors.

In general, the deciduous Magnolias are grown in the cold winter locales of California and the evergreens in the warm areas of the state. Both types of Magnolia do well in central and northern coastal areas. The magnolia's adaptabiliy to climate locales can be indicated by its native locales—eastern United States, south through Mexico to South America and in Asia from northern Japan to Java and the Himalayas.

Magnolias enjoy a moist, rich, well-drained soil. The best time for planting is now, in early spring. Take care not to injure the roots when planting for they are apt to decay; after planting, top dress with a mulch and water faithfully throughout the summer, making sure the water drains through the mulch to the tree roots. Avoid planting surface-rooting plants around young Magnolias for the Magnolia roots feed both on the surface and at great depths. Also, do not allow the soil to pack around the roots Once established, however, Magnolias will withstand great hardships, says the California Association of Nurserymen. Prune only if necessary and then do so right after flowering. Paint each pruning wound with tree paint.

The list of Magnolias available to the home gardener is a large one and it includes many beautiful trees. Some of the outstanding Magnolias are Veitch Magnolia (M. veitchi) which grows vigorously to a large size with rosy pink flowers; the Magnolia Soulangeana with rosy pink and purplish white flowers and the Pink Star (M. stellata rosea) with profuse pink flowers.

Shade Tree Varieties

Shade trees have always been a favorite in California gardens and yards for they provide a perfect setting for popular California outdoor living. Several recent introdutcions in shade trees have increased the variety of types available to where there is now a shade tree to suit practically every garden.

The Ginkgo or Maidenhair tree long a shade tree favorite now bears a new name variety that will bring real color to a streetside location. The variety Autumn Gold is an "offspring" of the well-known Gingko biloba. Autumn Gold grows upright, symmetrical and oval-shaped and has no undesirable flowers or fruit. A good sized tree, 40 feet tall and 20 feet wide at maturity, Autumn Gold's foliage turns to the richest golden autumn color of any shade tree in California.

Liquidambar is another familiar name in shade tree circles. Recently introduced into this family are two new oriental species: Liquidambar formosana and Liquidambar orientalis. The formsana is smaller in stature than the common American Liquidambar. Its three-lobed leaves are downy and violet-red while young. In the autumn its foliage turns to delicate shades of old rose. Formosana's cousin, the orientalis is also a small tree; foliage is five-lobed with deeply cut leaves that resemble the Japanese Maple.

A variety of the familiar Liquidambar styraciflua is Palo Alto. It grows pyramidal and tall with glossy, five-lobed leaves that turn to bright orange-red in the autumn.

A native to China, Liriodendron chinense is a recently introduced Tulip tree variety. It grows smaller than the American Tulip tree and does best in partial shade and ample moisture. Under these conditions the Chinese Tulip tree will develop huge, picturesque leaves.

Gardeners seeking an evergreen shade tree for a small area should investigate the possibilities of two (2) new Magnolia varieties, suggests the California Association of Nurserymen. They are Magnolia grandiflora Margarita and Magnolia grandiflora Stalwart. The Margarita reaches 18 feet at maturnty with a 20 foot spread; it features the customary attractive Magnolia blooms and glossy foliage, blooming while young. Stalwart grows slightly taller than Margarita and reaches 50 feet at maturity. Its form is attractive—branches spread to 26 feet at the base, tapering slightly to the top. It will bloom while young and is especially recommended for streetway plantings.

Two (2) upright growing evergreen Chinese Elm varieties have recently been introduced. They are Ulumus Parvifolia sempervirens Brea and Ulmus parvifolia sempervirens Drake; both are evergreen and attractive in their upright manner of growth.

Nurserymen have or will soon have these new shade tree varietiets available. Check at your local nursery for one of these newcomers and enjoy its shade and beauty for years to come.

Clematis Vines

The uses to which vines can be put in a California garden are many and certainly one of the most purposeful and attractive vines for planting is the Clematis.

Though the Clematis family is composed of some 230 species, the group suitable for California planting is composed of eight (8) species, seven (7) of these deciduous. The single evergreen species is the well-known Clematis armandi which is fast growing to 20 feet. Iits foliage is dark, glossy green and the star-like flowers, blooming in March and April, glisten white. The armandi starts growing slowly and must be trained every week at first so that new tendrils will not entwine themselves. Plant this Clematis along fence tops or use it to accent a line of the house or the entrance.

Clematis jackmani is an extremely hardy grower but can be easily controlled. Purple flowers appear from July on. Prune the jackmani severely for the flowers bloom on new wood; when the buds begin to swell in early spring, cut back to within two (2) joints of the base of new growth made in the previous season. Hybrids of the jackmani are Mme. Andre, with velvety red flowers, and Ramona, bearing large lavender-blue flowers.

The large violet-blue flowers of the C. lawsoniana species recommend it to California gardeners and its offspring henryi with large white flowers is well worth cultivating too. The henryi is a good choice for tracery on a trellis or frame, the California Association of Nurserymen recommends.

There are several other important hybrids of the Clematis: Crimson Star, rich red; Nelly Moser, mauve with red bars; Prins Hendrick, orchid blue; and The President, plum purple.

Moreland PTA Elects Officers

Mrs. Clarence Neale was elected president for the coming school year when Moreland PTA held a potluck dinner meeting March 20. New officers to serve with Mrs. Neale are Mrs. Ben Mayo, 1st vice-president; Frank Lovoi, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. Robert Pennell, 3rd vice-president; Mrs. Justin Morton, secretary; Ozzie Basora, treasurer; George Sewell, auditor; and Mrs. James Ryder, historian.

Frank Maggi, president of the club, introduced parents attending. and Thomas Geran led a community sing and O-Ki-Ka-Ma Camp Fire Girls led the flag salute.

On April 5, films of former fights will be shown in the Moreland cafetorium at 7:30 p.m. as a benefit program to send a music student to College of Pacific Music Camp next summer.

Mrs. Ben Mayo, refreshment chairman, was assisted by 7th grade mothers as hostesses for the dinner.

S. J. SYMPHONY TO PRESENT CONCERT

The San Jose Symphony Orchestra will present its third free concert of the current season Tuesday, April 2, in San Jose Civic Auditorium at 8:30 p.m.

Soloist will be violinist Dorothy Wade of Los Angeles, who was a child prodigy and student of Jascha Heifetz. Her number will be Mozart's "Concerto for Violin and Orchestra No. 3 in G Major".

Also programmed are "Sinfonia Concertante for Four Woodwinds", by Mozart and "Symphonie Fantastique" by Berlioz.

AUXILIARY SPONSORS GIRLS' STATE IDEA

Campbell Unit No. 596 and Charles F. Wallace Unit (Burbank District), American Legion Auxiliary, are again co-sponsors of the Girls' State program to be held on the Davis University campus from June 7 to June 25.

Campbell High's representative this year will be Linda Yamamoto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Yamamoto of Saratoga Avenue.

Girls' State is an Americanism program with one week of training in government, citizenship and leadership, which is sponsored each year by American Legion Auxiliaries throughout the nation.

Girls are chosen from the Junior classes by their principals and high school faculty for their outstanding qualities of leadership, character and scholastic ability.

STUDENTS RECEIVE READING AWARDS

Awards for their efforts in the Book Club of America reading project were presented to students of Farnham School by Principal Albert Vatuone at a recent meeting of the Home and School Club. Sixth grade pupils receiving buttons were Susan Bridewell, Margaret Mitchell, and Victor Smothers; Michael Moore earned a member pin. Fifth graders receiving buttons were Janette Kirkland, Marcelyn Kincaid, Judith Kessel, Elizabeth Jely and Bill Barnes; Teri Nicholson received a member pin.

School activities this month included an arithmetic workshop for primary teachers of the Cambrian School District conducted by Mrs. Fay Schoonover, vice-principal of Farnham, and Dr. Lola Fay Gordon, general supervisor of the county. The purpose of the workshop was to introduce the new arithmetic series to be released this year. The series stresses understanding rather than answers to problems.
